Lieutenant-Commander Homer Atkinson, who presided, appointed the following committee: Chairman, R. R. Davis; Carter R. Bishop, General Stith Bolling, George S. Bernard, and Simon Seward. It is inferred from the remarks of Chamber of Commerce committee, that the City Council will be asked to appropriate $5,000 to the celebration.

STATE FAIRS HARD HIT.

Railway Rate Bill Prevents Issue of Entrance Coupon Tickets.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., May 3.—That the railway bill, which was passed by Congress last year, will affect the Interstate Fair Association, of this city, as well as all other similar organizations, has just come to light. Indeed, some of these enterprises, which have depended largely on the aid of the railroads for their financial support through the medium of entrance coupon tickets, may have to go out of business as the result. Certainly, this is a fact with regard to the well-known Inwood Fair, which is located in the Cumberland Valley, near Martinsburg, W. Va., as this association has already decided to disband for this reason.

SELLS RESTAURANT.

Stranger Offers One-Fourth Interest for $50.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., May 3.—C. A. Holland, a neatly dressed white man, and a stranger in this city, was arraigned before Police Justice Simmons to-day for a charge of obtaining $50 under false pretenses from George Karlos, a Greek employed at the Jamestown Exposition grounds. He was sent on to the Corporation Court for trial.

Attorney S. M. Brandt, who is counsel for Holland, made a motion to have the plaintiff placed under a $500 bond for his appearance in the Corporation Court Monday, but Justice Simmons did not deem that necessary.

It is alleged that Holland offered to sell to Karlos one-fourth interest in a restaurant located on the corner of Granby and Washington streets. Karlos never got anything in return.

STEPHENS CITY NOW BRINGS ITS SUIT

Bill Filed in Threatened Litigation Against Messrs. Strickley and Tavenner.

WINCHESTER, VA., May 3.—A bill of complaint was filed in the Circuit Court in this city to-day by Attorney Richard E. Byrd and P. S. Larkick, representing the citizens of Stephens City, of the county, alleging that Dr. S. M. Strickley, a prominent county physician, and A. J. Tavenner, surveyor of Frederick county, have entered into a conspiracy to seize the public square of Stephens City and appropriate the same to the county, alleging that Dr. S. M. Strickley, Mayor of Stephens City, and by property-owners of the town to recover possession of the square and restrain Messrs. Strickley and Tavenner from interfering with property belonging to the town. The bill states that the public square was deeded to Stephens City in 1755 by Peter Stevens, founder of the town, and alleges that Strickley and Tavenner have entered into a conspiracy to obtain a patent from the Commonwealth of Virginia on representations that the square was waste land and unappropriated lands. It is further alleged that the public square has been divided into building lots by Strickley and Tavenner, and that sale of some of the same has already been made, to the profit of the alleged conspirators. The defendants have not filed their answer to the bill.

In the meantime the town is all agog, and feeling is said to run high. Judge Thomas W. Harrison will hear the case.

GETS INJUNCTION VS. TICKET SCALPERS

Eleven Transportation Companies Win First Step in Action Against Norfolk Brokers.

JUDGE PRENTIS SITS IN CASE

Final Hearing Will Be Held May 27th—Present Injunction in Force Until May 31st.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, VA., May 3.—The eleven railway and steamship lines entering Norfolk, which took united action against the ticket brokers of Norfolk to prevent them from selling non-transferable tickets were successful to-day in securing a temporary injunction against each of the ticket brokers in this city.

This afternoon, Judge Prentiss, of the City Circuit Court, granted the temporary injunctions until May 31st. On May 27th a motion will be heard by Judge Prentiss as to whether the injunctions shall be continued longer than May 31st or not.

The injunctions broadly prohibit the ticket brokers from buying or selling the non-transferable special-rate Jamestown Exposition round-trip tickets issued by their lines or by any of their connecting lines.

Those against whom the injunctions were granted are Hamburg's Ticket Agency, Davidson's Ticket Agency, O. Englehart, Harry Casper, William Fitzgerald, Harry Fred, Ed. Peckles, A. A. Ham, Miron Corlett, Joseph Kurtz, George McConnell and Yum Lee.

Petitioning Companies.

The following are the lines that petitioned Judge Prentiss for the injunction: Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, Southern Railway, New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad, Norfolk and Western Railway, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Seaboard Air Line, Atlantic Coast Line, Baltimore and Ohio Railway, Chesapeake Steamship Company, and Baltimore Steam Packet Company.

Two leading brokers who made a hard fight to keep the lines from obtaining injunction, were Hamburg and Davidson. They have been doing business in Norfolk twenty-two and seven years, respectively. The two agencies were represented by Attorneys Jeffries and Lawless.

It was claimed by the brokers that they have clean records in business and they do not think it fair that they should be restrained from doing business now that it will be heavy on account of the Jamestown Exposition.

DICKSON CASE WILL COME UP TUESDAY

Mayor of Fredericksburg Holds, However, That No Felony Is Charged.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] FREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 3.—The case of R. H. Dickson, charged with abducting Miss Madeline Dempsey, daughter of W. L. Dempsey, of this city, was not concluded by Mayor Wallace to-day. The counsel for Dickson moved that the warrant be dismissed on the grounds that there was no charge. The Mayor held that the warrant did not charge felony, but that in his opinion it did charge abduction at common law, which is a misdemeanor. The trial of the case was postponed until next Tuesday morning.

An appeal from the decision of the Mayor was announced, and will come up in the Corporation Court later. Dickson left the city yesterday afternoon, and no one here knows where he has gone and when he will return. He was under bail of $1,000.

"I am going to leave no avenue of escape open," Mr. Dempsey said to-day. "Although my daughter was unharmful when found, I have in my pocket a letter written by Dickson last week while she was in Winchester, which indicates clearly his ultimate purposes. This letter was the first intimation my daughter had that his intentions were anything but the best."

"He has been a friend of the family for years, and, taking advantage of this friendship, promised my daughter, who is nothing but a child, that if she would go to Winchester he would obtain a position for her, paying three times as much as the one she held in Washington. In his letter to her last week, however, he cautioned her at length, and explained in detail how she must conduct herself to divert suspicion, admonishing her, 'If you fall in this, we are both in the soup.'"

"This set my daughter to thinking, and she tells me now that she did not understand this part of the letter. In fact, it is hard to get her to realize the gravity of her association with the man. She saw in him nothing but a benefactor."

Newspaper Tributes.

On the demise of the late Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4,685 newspaper stories of his life and career of the deceased.

These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee.

Mr. Burrelle, who makes a specialty of this unique method of preserving family history, also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family heirloom that will be handed down to future generations.

This work is one of the several developments of the press clipping industry and Mr. Burrelle has made a special study of the work he created several years ago.
